INFINITY WORKSHOP

We are offering a full day free INFINITY workshop for teachers on Saturday, February 2, 2008. As part of the workshop you are required to see the performance in the Capitol Theatre. Anyone registering for the workshop will receive a coupon for 2 half-price for the amount of $15.00 each. With completion of the 7 hours on Sat. plus 14 additional hours of classroom implementation and a report, you will receive your INFINITY credit.

Free student matinees are being performed January 30-February 1. Call Jessica for more information or to make reservations for you and your students: 297-4213. These performances are suitable for all grade levels.

To receive INFINITY credit you must attend all 7 hours of the workshop. You will execute at least 14 hours of classroom implementation and write a report describing your process and outcomes. You will deliver your report to Ririe-Woodbury by the first week of May 2008. University credit is available for a $50.00 fee plus 30 hours of implementation in your classroom.
